

Sonatrach ... a world leader in the field of Energy

Sonatrach is the Algerian company research, exploitation, pipeline transport, processing and marketing of hydrocarbons and their derivatives. It also occurs in other sectors such as power generation, the new and renewable energy and desalination of sea water it carries on business in Algeria and around the world where opportunities arise.

Sonatrach is the first company in Africa. She is ranked 12th among world oil companies, 2nd largest exporter of LNG and LPG and 3rd largest exporter of natural gas. Its total production (all products) is 230 million toe in 2006. His activities constitute about 30% of GNP of Algeria.

It employs 120 000 people across the Group.

Sonatrach, corporate citizen, working to strengthen social bonds, helping people in need, promote research and scientific activities, help create art, promote the sport, contribute to nature conservation and heritage preservation Cultural and historical.

Today Sonatrach sees no economic development without sustainable development.